

TWO PRAYERS OF ST THOMAS MORE
(Feast of Ss John Fisher & Thomas More, 22 June)

Give me Thy grace, good Lord : to set the world at naught;
 To set my mind fast upon Thee : and not to hang upon the blast of men's mouths;
 To be content to be solitary : not to long for worldly company;
 Little by little utterly to cast off the world : and rid my mind of all the business thereof;
 Not to long to hear of any worldly things : but that the hearing of worldly phantasies may be to me displeasing;
 Gladly to be thinking of God : piteously to call for His help;
 To lean unto the comfort of God : busily to labour to love Him;
 To know my own vileness and wretchedness : to humble and meek myself under the mighty hand of God;
 To bewail my sins past : for the purging of them patiently to suffer adversity;
 Gladly to bear my purgatory here : to be joyful of tribulations;
 To walk the narrow way that leadeth to life : to bear the cross with Christ;
 To have the last thing in remembrance : to have ever before my eye my death that is ever at hand;
 To make death no stranger to me : to foresee and consider the everlasting fire of hell;
 To pray for pardon before the Judge come : to have continually in mind the passion that Christ suffered for me;
 For His benefits unceasingly to give Him thanks : to buy the time again that I before have lost;
 To abstain from vain conversations : to eschew light foolish mirth and gladness;
 Recreations not necessary, to cut off : of worldly substance, friends, liberty, life and all, to set the loss as nothing for the winning of Christ;
 To think my greatest enemies my best friends : for the brethren of Joseph could never have done him so much good with their love and favour as they did him with their malice and hatred.
 These minds are more to be desired of every man : than all the treasures of all the princes and kings, Christian and heathen, were it gathered and laid together all upon one heap.

—This prayer, without title, was written in the margins of More's prayer book while he was imprisoned in the Tower of London

Give me the grace so to spend my life, that when the day of my death shall come, though I may feel pain in my body, I may feel comfort in soul;
 and with faithful hope in thy mercy,
 in due love towards Thee and charity towards the world,
 I may, through Thy grace, part hence into Thy glory. Amen.
