

NEW PRIESTS

The following is from the Homily given in the Rite of Ordination of Priests. The ordaining Bishop may either preach this, or his own words. In this homily, those who are about to be ordained, and those who are with them to witness and to support, are instructed about the nature of the priestly life. Please pray for Michael Ward, Thomas Mason, Kit Rodger, Jonathan Creer, Oliver Craddock, and all those ordained to the priesthood at this time.

Beloved brothers and sisters: because these our sons, who are your relatives and friends, are now to be advanced to the Order of priests, consider carefully the nature of the rank in the Church to which they are about to be raised. It is true that God has made his entire holy people a royal priesthood in Christ. Nevertheless, our great Priest himself, Jesus Christ, chose certain disciples to carry out publicly in his name, and on behalf of mankind, a priestly office in the Church. For Christ was sent by the Father and he in turn sent the Apostles into the world, so that through them and their successors, the Bishops, he might continue to exercise his office of Teacher, Priest, and Shepherd. Indeed, priests are established co-workers of the Order of Bishops, with whom they are joined in the priestly office and with whom they are called to the service of the people of God.

After mature deliberation, these, our brothers, are now to be ordained to the priesthood in the Order of the presbyterate, so as to serve Christ the Teacher, Priest, and Shepherd, by whose ministry his body, that is, the Church, is built and grows into the people of God, a holy temple. In being configured to Christ the eternal High Priest and joined to the priesthood of the Bishops, they will be consecrated as true priests of the New Testament, to preach the Gospel, to shepherd God's people, and to celebrate the sacred Liturgy, especially the Lord's sacrifice.

Now, dear sons, you are to be raised to the Order of the Priesthood. For your part you will exercise the sacred duty of teaching in the name of Christ the Teacher. Impart to everyone the word of God which you have received with joy. Meditating on the law of the Lord, see that you believe what you read, that you teach what you believe, and that you practice what you teach. In this way, let what you teach be nourishment for the people of God. Let the holiness of your lives be a delightful fragrance to Christ's faithful, so that by word and example you may build up the house which is God's Church.

Likewise you will exercise in Christ the office of sanctifying. For by your ministry the spiritual sacrifice of the faithful will be made perfect, being united to the sacrifice of Christ, which will be offered through your hands in an unbloody way on the altar, in union with the faithful, in the celebration of the sacraments. Understand, therefore, what you do and imitate what you celebrate. As celebrants of the mystery of the Lord's death and resurrection, strive to put to death whatever in your members is sinful and to walk in newness of life.

Remember, when you gather others into the people of God through Baptism, and when you forgive sins in the name of Christ and the Church in the sacrament of Penance; when you comfort the sick with holy oil and celebrate the sacred rites, when you offer praise and thanks to God throughout the hours of the day, not only for the people of God but for the world—remember then that you are taken from among men and appointed on their behalf for those things that pertain to God. Therefore, carry out the ministry of Christ the Priest with constant joy and genuine love, attending not to your own concerns but to those of Jesus Christ.

✕Saturday 7 July 5.00pm Fr Michael Ward, Holy Rood

✕Sunday 8 July 9.15am Fr Kit Rodger, Our Lady of the Rosary

-Thomas Mason spent time at Holy Rood while a seminarian, studying at Blackfriars for the priesthood through the Ordinariate of Our Lady of Walsingham. He is one of the first laymen (ie not former clergy) to have completed formation for the priesthood in the Ordinariate.

-Kit Rodger is the son of Nick and Susan Rodger, and is to be ordained for the Emmanuel Community, working at present in the Archdiocese of Bordeaux.

-Michael Ward has been in our parish and with the Ordinariate over the past year as a deacon, and will, God willing, continue to serve here after ordination.
