

SAINT OF THE WEEK: ST MARY MAGDALEN, (22 July)

When Mary Magdalen came to the grace and did not find the Lord's body, she imagined that it had been taken away, and went to tell the disciples. They came, looked, and believed that it actually had happened as she told them. The gospel account continues: 'The disciples, therefore, went away again to their home. But Mary remained standing at the tomb, weeping.'

At this point we must stop and reflect upon the ardent love in the heart of this woman who would not leave the Lord's grave even after his own disciples had gone away. She continued seeking him whom she could not find; in tears she kept searching; and, afire with love, she yearned for him whom she believed had been removed. Thus it happened that she alone saw him, she who had remained behind to seek him, simply because a truly good act involves the virtue of perseverance. For the lips of Truth itself have said: 'He who perseveres to the end shall be saved.'

She had already sought and found nothing. But she persevered, and therefore found the object of her love. While she was seeking, her longing grew stronger and stronger until at highest pitch it was allayed in the embrace of him whom she was seeking. Outwardly, it was he who was the object of her search, but inwardly it was he who was teaching her to search for him.
