

SAINT OF THE WEEK: ST BRIDGET OF SWEDEN

Born in Sweden in 1303, she married young, and gave birth to eight children whom she brought up in a religious spirit. She was a member of the Third Order of St Francis, but after her husband's death decided to lead a more ascetical life. Later she founded the Bridgettine Order and went to Rome where she became outstanding in her practice of virtue. She wrote many works describing the mystical experiences she had and went on a penitential pilgrimage to the Holy Land. She died at Rome in 1373. St John Paul II declared her a Co-Patron Saint of Europe. The following, taken from the Liturgy of the Hours, is extracted from her prayers.

Everlasting honour be to you, Lord Jesus Christ, who in such extremity humbly looked with fond love on your holy mother, who never sinned nor ever countenanced even the smallest sin; you consoled her and entrusted her to the faithful care of your disciple.

Eternal blessing be to you, my Lord Jesus Christ, who in the agony of death granted hope of pardon to all sinners, when you mercifully promised the glory of paradise to the thief who turned to you.

Blessed be you, my Lord Jesus Christ, who by your precious blood and most holy death redeemed souls, and mercifully led them from exile unto eternal life.

May rejoicing and eternal praise be to you, Lord Jesus Christ, who sent the Holy Spirit into the hearts of your disciples, and increased the immeasurable love of God in their souls.

May you be blessed and praised and glorious for ever, my Lord Jesus, who are seated in the glory of your divinity on your throne in the kingdom of heaven, yet living in your human nature with all the holy members which you derived from the flesh of the Virgin, Thus you will come in the day of judgement to judge the souls of the living and the dead: you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.
