

MAY MAGNIFICAT: III

-Our Lady and our Parish, Part One-

After the Reformation, the Catholic Church in this country had almost none of the administrative and other structures enjoyed by the Church elsewhere: no cathedrals, no dioceses, no parishes... The bishops had been compelled to choose: take the Oath of Supremacy, and so deny the authority of the Pope, or lose their dioceses. Those who refused to 'conform' were imprisoned or fled overseas. From 1623, we came under 'Apostolic Vicariates'. Their leaders, the Apostolic Vicars, were bishops directly subject to the Holy See, who walked a fine line between being missionaries, chaplains, and fugitives. What is now our parish was in the Apostolic Vicariate of the London District. In 1850, our part of this became the Diocese of Southwark, and in 1882, the Diocese of Portsmouth.

If you lived in (what is now) our parish between 1623 and 1850, you didn't have a parish church, according to canon law. Instead, there were local chapels, usually attached to country houses, where a network of clergy would offer the holy Mass and administer the other sacraments as they were able. A small Catholic church was built over the river in St Clement's in 1793, and before that you might have travelled to the Powells' house at Sandford-on-Thames (now a Four Pillars hotel), later to their cousins the Curson family's chapel at Waterperry, or to Milton Manor, where, in 1773, Bishop Richard Challoner dedicated a chapel on 15 August, the feast of the Assumption, in honour of Our Lady. Milton Manor was the house of Challoner's friend and occasional protector Bryant Barrett, who had bought the house a decade earlier, and then added the chapel. Here is an extract from the saintly bishop's Meditations, set for the Feast of the Assumption:

Consider, first, and contemplate in spirit, the glorious entry of the Blessed Virgin Mary, mother of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ, into the everlasting kingdom of her Son. Behold her now placed above all the Cherubim and Seraphim, on a most glorious throne, the highest in heaven next to that of her divine Son,—and crowned by him with a diadem of such supereminent brightness and glory, as far as exceeds our utmost conception. Rejoice, O my soul, at this glorious assumption of the Mother of thy Lord, who as he has been pleased to make us his brethren, has also given her to be our Mother. Consider, secondly, what it was that raised our blessed Lady to this supereminent glory? It was, in the first place, her most profound humility: she was exalted above all, because she was the most humble of all. For he that humbled himself the most upon earth, shall be the most exalted in heaven. 2. Her perfect purity of soul and body. 3. Her consummate charity; for the degree of the enjoyment of God in his eternal glory, is always in proportion to the degree of our love of God, in this mortal life. Let us then strive to imitate her humility, her purity, and her perfect charity. —R. Challoner, Considerations upon Christian Truths & Duties

PARISH OUTING TO MILTON MANOR: SUNDAY 20 MAY | The house opens at 2.00pm; the entrance fee is £8 per head. Tea and cakes are available and there are house tours at 2, 3 and 4.00pm. Free parking, and it's about 20 minutes' drive. Parishioners can turn up on the day even if you didn't put your name on the list. If we aim to get there for 2.00pm then we can meet up before everyone does their own thing. The afternoon will conclude with Mass in the Chapel. Any queries, please ring Monica on 01865 452205. Bring on the sunshine! Milton Manor House, Milton, Abingdon, OX14 4EN
